Component Description

Assembly Instructions

Adjust the female retention post to match the Raspberry Pi and attach the screws to the CrowVision's female retention posts from the back. This can be done optionally on the left side of the case. The screws can be tightened using a T10 or a T15 screwdriver.

Connection Description

Details of Accessories

Electrical Parameters