User manual

Connect the board and computer with the USB cable, then press the remote control to see the displayed content.

There are 21 different looks in total, "7" plays Happy Birthday, "8" plays Two Tigers, "9" displays all LED patterns in order. The other 18 buttons each corresponding to a type of LED lame change.

We can provide program source code, you need to download with the USB to TTL cable. Connect according to the picture, then click the reset button to enter the download.